

Evrópustofa – EU Info Centre – will:

- Disseminate objective information about the European Union (EU).
- Provide a platform for discussion on EU issues, such as Iceland's accession process, and the development of the European Union.
- Increase general knowledge of the European Union in Iceland.

Evrópustofa's main goal is to increase discussion, knowledge and understanding of the nature and policies of the European Union in Iceland.

Evrópustofa is run by the Icelandic PR Consultancy Athygli and the German company Media Consulta.

Evrópustofa is a project funded by the European Union.

Evrópustofa – the EU Info Centre – is located at Suðurgata 10, 101 Reykjavík. It is open Monday through Friday from 10 am to 6 pm. Saturdays from 10 am to 2 pm. The Centre is wheelchair accessible through the back.

What does Evrópustofa do?

Evrópustofa is an EU Information Centre. It is intended to increase understanding and knowledge of the European Union, and the benefits and challenges of Iceland's possible accession to the EU. Evrópustofa is open to everyone, regardless of their views on the EU or Iceland's accession process.

What would you like to know?

The Evrópustofa team will try to answer questions regarding the EU and provide assistance to people looking for information on their own, for example regarding EU projects and funds.

Guests are welcome to sit down and enjoy Evrópustofa's selection of various reading material on the EU.

The website, evropustofa.is, hosts a wealth of EU information, as well as links to various EU information sites. Please feel free to send us an email or call us. Our staff will do their best to answer your questions and comments!

A variety of events

Evrópustofa organizes round-tables and discussion meetings around the country. Information meetings, seminars, and cultural events will take place both at the Evrópustofa premises and elsewhere.

 *Do you have an interesting EU-related idea?
Please contact us!*

Publishing

Evrópustofa publishes brochures and other information material on the EU.

Such information will also be available on the website, evropustofa.is.

 All questions are valid – we will try to answer!

Public relations and the media

Evrópustofa seeks to assist journalists in finding information on the EU and its operations.

There are many EU myths in circulation. Evrópustofa will try its best to correct such misunderstandings.

 Call us or send an e-mail – we can send you free information material.

Collaboration

Evrópustofa seeks to collaborate with different institutions, organisations, and the academia, as well as other interest groups which can have different views on Iceland's accession process.
